

Mr Daniels' Book Choices.....

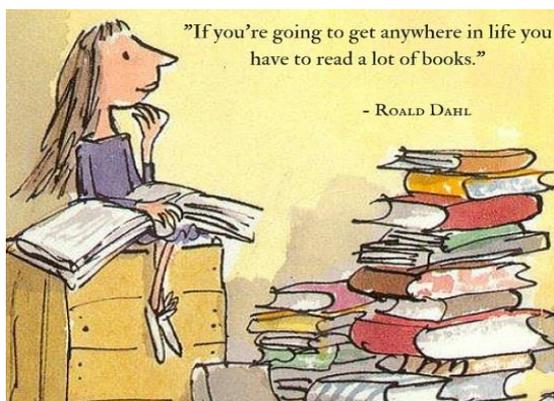

It is very difficult to choose just one book, so I am going to choose one written for young people and one for older.

'I am David' by Anna Holm is a book about a young boy finding out about the meaning of being free and seeing objects and places for the first time. Can you remember seeing something and wondering what it was?

The book for older people is 'The Ragged Trousered Philanthropist' by Roberts Tressell who lived in Liverpool and is buried in Walton Cemetery. This too is about freeing ordinary people, from poverty.

Two wonderful books that you can read many times and feel something different each time.

Newsletter Spring 1 2017

There are lots of reading opportunities at Springwood Heath. CRASH (Cool Reading at Springwood Heath) is very important to us as we believe that a child who reads for pleasure will develop a lifelong love for reading and learning.

"As the amount a child reads increases, their reading attainment improves, which in turn encourages them to read more. All reading makes a difference, but evidence suggests that reading for pleasure makes the most."

DFE 2015

Y3 are reading "Ice Cat" by Linda Newbery

"I liked the part where the ice cat escapes." Kai

"It's full of similes and adverbs."

Ameira

Y1 are reading 'The Tiger Who Came to Tea' by Judith Kerr

"I liked the part where the tiger drinks all of the dad's beer." Noah

World Book day is on Thursday 2nd March 2017 We will be dressing up as our favourite book characters.....Children can come to school dressed as their favourite character on that day if they would like to!

Josh in Y6 is reading 'AniMalcolm- Life as an animal is wild' by David Baddiel.

"I like the book because it gives you a feeling of what it's like to be an animal. I would recommend this book- even non-animal lovers can get a good laugh out of it!"

Don't forget to come to the library on Friday afternoons after school 3:15-3:45 to choose a weekend read!

Y4 are reading 'Charlotte's Web' by E.B.White

"You think it's going to have a pig as its main character but it's actually a spider!" Danny

"It gets you really excited to read." Isabelle

"It makes you want to keep reading." Izzy

"The books transported her into new worlds and introduced her to amazing people who lived exciting lives. She went on olden-day sailing ships with Joseph Conrad. She went to Africa with Ernest Hemingway and to India with Rudyard Kipling. She travelled all over the world while sitting in her little room in an English village."

— Roald Dahl, Matilda
